

AARP TAX-AIDE SITE WILL NOT RE-OPEN

The Gulfport Library Tax-Aide site will not re-open for the remainder of this tax season. The health and safety of our volunteers, staff and taxpayers is our top priority, and the decision not to re-open was made based on health data trends for U.S. states and counties.

AARP Foundation Tax-Aide is offering online options to assist taxpayers affected by the suspension of in-person services:

- ☒ A self-prep option, providing taxpayers with free access to software so they can prepare taxes on their own, is available at signup.aarpfoundation.org/preparing-your-taxes-online/.
- ☒ If taxpayers would like help completing their own taxes, they can request the assistance of a volunteer to coach them through the process via phone or computer screen-sharing. Taxpayers should visit aarp.org/forms/tax-prep-assistance-request.html to submit a request.
